Fulfilling Christ's Mission in the World

Psalm 90:12 Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

On Sunday, January 23, I attended worship at the First Baptist Church of Milton. Rev. Jamie Dries was doing a sermon series entitled Redeeming Your Time, with the overarching scripture passage being Psalm: 90:12.

The Sunday I was present, the third sermon of the series was Prioritize Your Yeses, Accept Your Unipresence. I was grateful to have been with FBC Milton for the message. Of course, our God is Omnipresent, able to be everywhere at once, but Pastor Jamie pointed out when Jesus took on flesh, he become unipresent, bound by physical limitations of space and time.

There are days in Regional Ministry that I wish I had God's ability to be omnipresent but as Pastor Jamie pointed out, I am unipresent and need to accept those limitations.

As Dr. Jeff and I take on new roles in 2022 following Pastor Frank's departure, we knew there were more relational connection requirements in ABCOPAD than our unipresence could accommodate.

As a result, the Regional Board called 6 GPS (Geographic Pastoral Servants) to facilitate relationships of encouragement and support during this transitional year. ABCOPAD is all about relationships and partnership in ministry and our GPS team will help make that possible in 2022.

When you support Partners in Ministry (PIM / Regional Offering) you make it possible for ABCOPAD to call and deploy GPS (Geographic Pastoral Servants) and RMA's (Regional Ministry Associates) who can be present with pastors and congregations throughout the Region.
